

Woollamia Village Retreat

Featuring eight self contained cottages representative of an Australian village at Federation time. Choose from the Church, Bank, General Store, School, Police Station, Post Office, Overseers Cottage, which is suitable for disabled visitors or the Village Inn. All cottages feature one bedroom with queen bed and spacious living area with additional bedding available. A unique experience in a high standard of accommodation awaits, along with a touch of history, nostalgia, seclusion and romance in a quiet bush setting close to Jervis Bay. We are also pet friendly.
